

TRAINING REPORT

Training on the topic “Livelihood Generation Through Agroforestry” has been organized on 02-05-2018 at Primary School Akaha, Mdhura Uttar, Araria under the “Agroforestry Capacity Building Project of Bihar State” by Forestry Research and Extension Centre, Patna under Institute of Forest Productivity, Ranchi. In the training 41 participants (40 Farmers and 1 forest official) participated. During the training various aspects of agroforestry systems and livelihood generation through agroforestry has been discussed. In the question answer session farmers were asked about return and marketing aspects of the agroforestry produce which were answered and also forest officials assured about the selling of products. The details of the training are:-

S.N.	ITEMS	DESCRIPTION
1.	Forest Division (In which Training organized)	: Araria Forest Devision, Araria
2.	District of Training	: Araria
3.	Block	: Narpatganj
4.	Panchayat	:Madura Uttar
5.	Village(Venue)	:Primary School Akaha, Mdhura Uttar
6.	Number of Participants	: 40
7.	No. of Male Participants	: 40
8.	No. of Female participants	NILL
9.	Forest officials Participated	: 01
9.	Training Topics (on which lecture given)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction of Agroforestry and its economical and ecological Importance.• Different agroforestry systems which can be practiced in the region.• Important Agroforestry species and their cultivation practices.• Important diseases and insect pests of agroforestry systems and their control measure.

-
- Nursery raising techniques of Poplar and other agroforestry species like Kadamb, Semal and Eucalyptus.
 - ETP transplanting and after care/silvicultural operations required in poplar based agroforestry systems.
 - Question and Answer session with farmers involving forest officials of the forest Division.
-

Farmers Participating in the training Program

Village level training on Agroforestry Systems and farmers participated