

EDUCATIONAL EXPOSURE VISIT OF KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA IVRI, BAREILLY, UP
STUDENTS TO FRI ON
15th FEBRUARY 2020 UNDER "PRAKRITI"
PROGRAMME

Prakrati – A student and Teacher connect programme is being conducted in the Forest Research Institute for interaction of scientists with students of Kendriy vidyalays and Navoday Vidyalayas.

Under this programme Prakiriti 31 students KV IVRI, Bareilly, visited the Forest Research Institute on 15th Feb 2020 with their 03 teachers and interacted with Scientist of Extension Division of the institute. During interactive session Dr. Devendra Kumar, Scientist E introduced the Scientists of Extension Division with students and their teachers. Dr. Charan Singh, Scientist E, Extension Division, FRI given brief account of the institute and research work being carried out in it. He mentioned that FRI is a premier institute in the field of forestry research, extension and education to cater the various services of forestry. He mentioned that the institute is also equipped with a deemed university which cater degree courses at postgraduate and doctorate level in forestry. He said that students are future custodian of native and hence they have to bear more and more responsibility on their shoulders to conserve the nature by judicious use of natural resources.

In the interaction Mr. Vijay Kumar, ACF and Mr. Yatharth Dulgacha, MTS were also present. After interaction, students visited various FRI museums of the institute viz. Forest Pathology museum, Silviculture museum, Timber Museum, Bambusetum and central nursery. During the visit of different museums, quarries were raised by students and explained by concerned scientists/officers deputed in museums of FRI.

Glimpses of visit:

